

South Park Community Center

Tacoma, Washington

This community center is the flagship facility of the Metropolitan Park District of Tacoma. It is a multi-use facility with numerous divisible spaces for simultaneous events, a dance studio, a large event room, quiet gathering spaces/living room areas, support offices, and other support spaces. The prior shell on the site was totally converted, with significant site planning issues addressed, including access and flexibility for the user groups.

The prior shell on the site was totally converted...