

Cowlitz County Courthouse Annex Historic Windows & Doors Restoration Study

Kelso, Washington

Cowlitz County requested that Merritt do an extensive study on replacing the windows and doors of the historic building. Three sides were converted to a more modern metal window and metal door system while the fourth side has maintained the original historic wood windows. This study helped Cowlitz County determine the best option to returning all four sides to the original wood windows and doors.

