

City of Kent Campus Plan

Kent, Washington

Merritt led the planning/design effort to expand the City of Kent facilities offices due to recent population and annexation growth. The project incorporated adjoining existing buildings into the long range civic campus plan. The first phase included remodeling one of the buildings adjacent to the core City Hall for the Building and Planning Permit Center.

